

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

January 31, 2020

Dear Manan:

Congratulations, you're #NowATerp! I'm thrilled to offer you admission to the University of Maryland (UMD) and Carillon Communities for the Fall 2020 semester. You should be pleased to know that you were selected from among a highly talented group of applicants.

You should be especially proud of your invitation to Carillon Communities, a living-learning program that will provide you with a remarkable opportunity to engage with other first-year students who wish to turn their curiosity into action. To respond to your Carillon Communities invitation and indicate your living-learning program interests, please navigate to your UMD Checklist in MyCoalition and select the question mark next to Carillon Communities to access the interest inventory form by February 17, 2020. You will receive additional information about Carillon Communities soon.

We're confident you'll contribute to UMD's legacy of innovation and leadership alongside our community of fearless students, faculty and alumni. During the next few months, you'll hear about many of the exciting opportunities on campus and beyond. As a Terp you'll find our proximity to Washington, D.C. offers unbeatable internship, research and cultural experiences.

To respond to your offer of admission, please complete the Decision Response on your UMD Checklist in MyCoalition as soon as possible but no later than May 1, 2020. Your major and resident classification are listed below. For more information about your next steps to becoming a Terp and financial aid, take a look at our Admitted Fall Freshman Checklist. Additional information regarding your admission decision can be found within our Admission Decision FAQs.

We look forward to welcoming you to the University of Maryland class of 2024!

Sincerely,

Shannon R. Gundy
